

City of Santa Monica

RENT CONTROL BOARD

COVID-19 Emergency Rental Assistance Program

Apply Now

Santa Monica's Housing & Human Services is offering a COVID-19 Emergency Rental Assistance program, providing eligible applicants up to three months of rental assistance, up to $5,000 per household.

Applications opened yesterday and close on Friday, July 17, 2020. The program will provide limited rental funds to eligible Santa Monica residents who can demonstrate a loss of income or increase in expenses due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The program does not cover back rent deferred by the local eviction moratorium. Eligible applications will be entered into a lottery for final selection.

For more Information, visit santamonica.gov/coronavirus-renthelp

Follow the City of Santa Monica to get daily updates!

City of Santa Monica

Santa Monica City Hall

1685 Main Street

Santa Monica, CA 90401

You signed up for email communications from the City of Santa Monica from one of our departments. If you would no longer like to receive emails, unsubscribe from this list. You can also update your preferences.